Pursuant to the Court's order of December 14, 2009, defendants timely filed an affidavit setting out their efforts to advise class members whose legalization applications

1
2 CIS rejected because they now reside abroad of their right to seek special master review
3 of the CIS's action. The Court's order grants plaintiffs until January 22, 2010, to file
4 objections to defendants' affidavit.

5 On January 11, 2010, the parties conferred in an effort to resolve their differences 6 over a remedy for rejected foreign filers, as well as for class members whose 7 applications CIS declared abandoned pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13). Those 8 discussions are continuing, and plaintiffs accordingly sought and obtained defendants'
9 agreement to extend the deadline for filing plaintiffs' objections.
